DREAMING SPIRES

TERMS & CONDITIONS

These terms and conditions apply to The Oxford United Football Club Dreaming Spires community giving back competition 2024.

1. By entering this competition, the entrant will be deemed to have read and understood these terms and conditions and agreed to be bound by them.
2. This competition is organised by Oxford United Football Club Limited (“OUFC”).
3. There will be ten (10) winners who will each receive a £1,000 grant. Organisations will be required to evidence the costs being incurred prior to a grant being distributed. Such evidence of the expenditure being incurred will include, for example, invoices, proof of payments, proposals and quotes. Once supporting documentation has been received, we aim to make the payment within four weeks. This is only possible if the information is supplied to us by the stated deadline. If the information is supplied late, this will delay your payment. If funds are found not to have been utilised for their intended purpose, OUFC reserves its rights to claw back the grant and issue legal proceedings where necessary to recover the grant.
4. To enter you must submit the answers to the questions listed below via the online form:
  - a. Your contact details: your name, email address, phone number.
  - b. Your organisation.
  - c. Tell us about the organisation in no more than 150 words.
  - d. Tell us in no more than 150 words what you would you spend the £1,000 on (for example: to support kit and equipment purchases, facility improvements, volunteer training and coaching requirements).
  - e. What would winning the competition mean to your organisation? (250 words max).
5. All entries must be received by OUFC by 23.59 on 12th April 2024. Entries received after this closing date and time will not be valid.
6. Any entry which is incomplete, illegible, incorrectly submitted or otherwise does not comply with the terms and conditions may be deemed invalid.
7. By submitting your entry, you are agreeing to these terms and conditions. You accept that:
  - a. OUFC will use your details to administer your prize if you win.

- b. As a competition entrant, OUFC may publish your organisation's name.
  - c. Your organisation is a charity, grassroots club, school, not for profit group, or volunteer group that supports the provision of sport and physical activity, and or health and wellbeing programmes. Schools whose facilities are used by community groups are also eligible.
  - d. Your organisation is registered, based and delivering in Oxfordshire.
  - e. Only one entry per organisation is permitted.
  - f. Winners will not be allowed to transfer the grant to another organisation or person.
  - g. OUFC accepts no responsibility for (i) lost or delayed entries; or (ii) entries incorrectly completed and/or incorrectly submitted due to a technical fault of any kind.
8. OUFC reserves the right to use your entry, your name, your social media username and/or photos/logo in marketing materials, promotional purposes and social media materials.
  9. The competition opened on 15th March 2024 and the deadline to enter is 23.59 on 12th April 2024.
  10. A judging panel comprising of members of Oxford United's new stadium project team will consider all entries and select the ten clubs which have in their view hit the highest standard in their submissions. The judging panel's decision will be final.
  11. The winners will be notified at the earliest opportunity. Each winner will have 14 working days to accept the offered prize. If they do not respond OUFC reserves the right to select a different organisation from the entries and the previous winner would no longer be entitled to the prize.
  12. The winners will be announced on OUFC digital platforms and via a press release. Winners will be expected to collaborate with OUFC on joint communications and PR activity.
  13. OUFC retains copyright of each entry.
  14. In the event of any dispute regarding the competition, OUFC's decision shall be binding and final.
  15. You can't submit an application if: You don't live in the UK; If your organisation isn't registered, based and delivering in Oxfordshire; you're under 18 years old; you're an employee or associate of OUFC or the OUFC Stadium Project team. OUFC reserves the right to reject any applications at any time if it deems necessary.

16. OUFC reserves the right to cancel the competition or change the outlined prizes at any time. In the event of the competition being cancelled or adjusted OUFC is not required to provide refunds.
17. OUFC will process the information you provide in relation to this campaign for the purposes of running this campaign, to contact you if you are selected and to provide and tailor our products and services to you. We may use your submission, your name, your social media username and/or photos for promotional purposes including for display on our social media channels and other marketing materials.
18. OUFC reserves the right to amend the terms and conditions at any time.
19. Whilst we'll try and fulfil our obligations to run the selection process smoothly, we'll not be responsible if something happens that is beyond our reasonable control.
20. OUFC reserves the right to refuse entry; or refuse to award the prize to anyone in breach of these terms and conditions. Instructions provided at the point of entry form part of the terms & conditions of this competition, and in the event of a conflict, these terms & conditions take precedence over those instructions.
21. These terms and conditions shall be governed by English law. If any provision of these terms and conditions is held invalid by any law, rule, order or regulation of any government, or by the final determination of any court of a competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the enforceability of any other provisions not held to be invalid.
